

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

2026

Shirley Warren Primary and Nursery School is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

This accessibility statement applies to the Shirley Warren Primary and Nursery School website:

www.shirleywarren.co.uk.

This website is run by Shirley Warren Primary and Nursery School. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website.

For example, that means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts using browser or device settings
- zoom in up to 400% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using a keyboard or speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader, including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible this website is

We are reviewing the accessibility of our website and will update this statement following accessibility testing.

Some documents published on our website, particularly older PDF documents, may not be fully accessible to screen-reader software.

If you experience difficulty accessing any part of the website, please contact us so that we can provide the information in another format where possible.

Feedback and contact information

If you find any problems not listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, please contact:

School	Shirley Warren Primary and Nursery School
Address	Warren Crescent, Southampton, SO16 6AY

We'll consider your request and aim to respond within 10 school days.

Enforcement procedure

If you have a complaint about the accessibility of our website, please contact the school in the first instance using the details above.

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

What we're doing to improve accessibility

We are committed to improving the accessibility of the Shirley Warren Primary and Nursery School website.

We will:

- review the accessibility of our website regularly
- consider accessibility when publishing new webpages and content
- use clear headings and straightforward language
- provide alternative text for meaningful images
- make link text meaningful wherever possible
- review the accessibility of documents before publishing them
- replace or improve inaccessible documents where these remain important to parents, carers or pupils
- work with our website provider to address technical accessibility issues
- respond to accessibility concerns raised by users
- provide information in an alternative format where reasonably possible

Preparation of this accessibility statement

This statement was prepared on 25 September 2026.

It was last reviewed on 25 September 2026. This statement will be reviewed at least annually and following any substantial change to the school website.
